Student's Step-By-Step Planning Guide

Discover the possibilities for life after high school. If you've decided to attend college, or even if you're not sure yet, you'll find this planning guide helpful as you prepare for the career of your dreams. REMEMBER...DON"T WAIT, START NOW!

ool.

Junior Year - Fall

- Start investigating post-high school education opportunities and research the different types of schools and training opportunities available.
- Choose a specific career that you'd like to pursue and visit with your high school guidance counselor regarding schools that will fulfill your educational and career goals.
- Review your recent and current class schedules with your school counselor to verify that you have taken, or are taking, those classes that will help you succeed in college and in your career.
- Attend career and college fairs and presentations.
- List the schools you are considering and send for literature. Request their admissions and financial aid information. Find out if the school requires ACT or SAT. Also ask how many applications they require, such as for admission, financial aid, and scholarships.
- Maintain good records during this entire process. Make copies of everything you send.
- Read all college materials you receive carefully. Decide what you want from an institution: major, location, athletics, reputation, etc. Then, compare the requirements for admission and financial aid.
- If you did not take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) in the 10th grade, take it now to prepare for college admission's tests and to establish eligibility for the National Merit Scholarship.
- Acquire a study guide for the ACT/SAT and start to prepare for the test.

Junior Year - Spring

- Take the SAT and/or ACT (depending on what is required by the institutions you're interested in attending). Your high school guidance counselor can provide you with the test dates and descriptive brochures.
- Start to narrow your list of post-high school options. Make plans to visit the facilities that are most appealing to you.
- Research scholarship opportunities and visit at least two types of colleges; i.e., large/small, community college/university, academic/ technical.
- Contact organizations sponsoring scholarships that you're eligible for and request information.
- Develop a resume of high school activities and awards, if you haven't already done so, and update as needed.
- Find a summer job to set aside money for school.
- Start submitting applications to schools of your choice. Some colleges will accept applications once your junior year is completed. Keep copies of everything you send.

Senior Year - Fall

- Double check that you are taking the courses that will meet the admissions' requirements of the post-high school institution that you are planning to attend.
- Take the SAT or ACT again if you need a higher score to meet admission requirements, to be eligible for certain scholarships, or if you didn't take it your junior year.
- Apply to the colleges you are considering EARLY. Generally, during December, January, or February you may apply for regular admission.
- Watch for important scholarship and financial aid information and visit your counselor for scholarship opportunities and applications. Be aware of deadlines and plan accordingly.
- Think about what you want to say in your college essay.
- Ask teachers to write letters of recommendation for you if they are required for admission or scholarships.

Senior Year - Winter

- Work with your parents to collect financial aid information and attend financial aid workshops together.
- Pick up and submit financial aid application. The most commonly used form in Idaho to seek federal financial aid is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Get it ready and mail the FAFSA after January 1. You may also need to fill out a separate form for institutional or state aid.
- Keep working on scholarship and financial aid applications. Remember to respond immediately to any requests for more information or for additional documents in your financial aid application.
- Who's home from college for the holidays? Visit with them about their college experience.
- Remind your parents to prepare their income tax statements as early as possible, since a photocopy of their return must be sent to most schools to which you have applied.

Senior Year - Spring

- Read all of your mail!! There may be important news.
- You should be hearing from colleges now. After you receive letters of acceptance and financial aid awards, decide which school you'll attend
- Mail in your acceptance form and deposit check as soon as possible. Pay attention to all deadlines and make sure that your applications are sent in on time. Ask about campus housing deadlines, specifically, because student housing fills up quickly.
- Review the financial aid package of the school of your choice with your parents. Be sure you understand each type of aid offered. Schedule an appointment with the school's financial aid director if you have questions. Don't forget to sign the financial aid award letter and return it by the deadline.
- Notify the financial aid office of the scholarships that you are receiving.
- Decline offers received from other institutions or organizations in writing.
- Complete any separate applications for loans you decide to accept.
- Participate in orientation programs for incoming freshmen offered by the school of your choice.

Congratulations on graduating from high school and good luck in your new adventure!

Financial aid Deadline

New Federal Scholarships

Idaho high school students who take rigorous classes may be eligible to receive additional Pell Grant money under a new federal law. The new program will allow Idaho Pell Grant recipients to take advantage of an additional $2,050 per individual in federal aid if they complete "academically rigorous" classes in high school. The additional aid comes to students in their freshman and sophomore years. The provision is part of President Bush's Academic Competitiveness Grant Program (ACG). There are a variety of ways to be eligible for the ACG program, check out: http://www.ed.gov.admins/finaid/about/ac-smart/state-programs-08.html

Students can also take advantage of the new National SMART Grants. To qualify, students must also be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant and be enrolled in a four year degree program. This program is for students in their third or fourth academic year and majoring in mathematics, science, technology, engineering or a critical foreign language such as Arabic, Chinese, Korean, Japanese, or Russian. If you think you might qualify for SMART grant consideration, contact the college or university you attend. For more information visit www.studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALSWebApp/students/english/SmartGrants.jsp

Academic Information

Since its founding in 1891, The College of Idaho has had a reputation for preparing students for success through a rigorous academic program grounded in the liberal arts and sciences. While the academic course work is challenging, you will have all the support you need to succeed. One of the most distinctive aspects about The College of Idaho is the relationship between students and professors. With an average class size of 10 and one full-time faculty member for every 9 students, you will never be a nameless face. Perhaps more importantly, The College of Idaho professors are dedicated to teaching, using their research as a tool to ensure their students have the very best education. At C of I, students interact with professors in the classroom and develop friendships with teachers who often become mentors for life.

The College of Idaho's student focus extends well beyond the walls of the classroom. Students serve on every governing board and committee. Here, students have the opportunity to shape college policy and leave a permanent mark on the institution. For example, last year a student committee worked to institute a campuswide honor code. After a thoroughly researched proposal was presented, the student body voted to endorse the honor code and the committee won the support of the faculty, staff, and board of trustees.

Student Success: The College of Idaho has a proven track record of providing students with the tools needed to find success in their chosen field, or to continue their education in the country's top graduate programs. About half of all C of I graduates decide to go on to pursue a graduate degree in their field. In the class of 2007, students were accepted to several top graduate programs including Rutgers Law School, Carnegie-Mellon, the University of San Francisco, and Oxford University. Dedicated faculty and C of I's Center for Experiential Learning help students obtain internships and, after graduation, assist with career placement. Recent graduates of the college have gone on to work for Ernst & Young, Microsoft, the Mayo Clinic, and the Center for Disease Control, to name a few.

Travel: Learning extends well beyond the classroom at The College of Idaho. The college's unique schedule provides many opportunities for travel. During the winter term, students are invited to broaden their horizons during faculty-led study-abroad trips. Students have recently studied in Thailand, London, Australia, Costa Rica, France, Germany, and Peru. From the economics of France to the ecology of the Australian rainforest, students conduct intensive academic research in the field with the guidance of faculty members and gain a real-world understanding of textbook material. Full-year international exchanges are also available.

Academic Terms: The academic year consists of two 12-week semesters (fall and spring) with a six week winter term. There is also a week long break every six weeks. The winter term provides students with a variety of educational opportunities, including interdisciplinary and uniquely themed classes. Students generally take two classes during the term, or they may opt to participate in a faculty-led study-abroad trip.

Advanced Placement: AP test scores are generally accepted with a score of three or four. Please call the Office of Admissions for more details.

Beyond the Classroom Campus Clubs/Organizations

With more than 60 student organizations, something is always happening on campus. The organizations range from improv theatre clubs to the service group Circle K International. Students will also find an active Greek community with six national fraternities and sororities, and one local sorority active on campus. The Campus Ministries program allows students to continue to grow in faith during their academic career. The program is non-denominational and offers late night worship services, small-group Bible study, and service opportunities.

Cultural Events and Entertainment

At The College of Idaho, learning continues well beyond class time, and often during the fun and excitement of campus activities. Options include student-run programming to professional performance troupes. The student-elected Program Council plans events ranging from concerts and comedians to Homecoming and Spring Fling. The International Student Organization gives students the opportunity to explore other cultures through the exchange of ideas over traditional foods during international 'snack feeds.' The Caldwell Fine Arts brings world renowned musicians and entertainers to The College of Idaho campus and invites students to attend the performances.

Housing

The residential experience is a vital component of the larger C of I experience. It is for this reason students are required to live on campus for the first two years, with many students choosing to remain on campus for their entire college career. The campus has four co-ed residence halls, including the newly refurbished Simplot Hall. These residence halls have both single and double rooms available. Juniors and seniors have the option of living in a traditional residence hall or in one of two on-campus apartment buildings. The majority of the freshman class lives in Hayman Hall, which is currently being remodeled! All halls are equipped with full kitchens, at least one computer lab, laundry facilities, and common lounges. All rooms have their own air conditioning and heating units.

Sports and Recreation

C of I students are just as competitive on the playing field as they are in the classroom. In fact, The College of Idaho has recently set a new NAIA record, being the first school to have 43 NAIA or USCSA Academic All-Americans! With 19 intercollegiate sports, there are plenty of opportunities to get in the game as a team member or as a screaming 'Yote fan. The College competes in the NAIA in men's and women's soccer, long distance running, track and field, swimming, skiing, snowboarding, basketball, golf and tennis; men's baseball; and women's volleyball, and softball. Men's tennnis is the most recent addition to our athletic program. Students also have the option of participating in the intramurals program or on the club lacrosse teams. An alternative to organized sports, and an opportunity to explore the great outdoors, can be found in the Outdoor Program (OP). The OP is a student-run program that provides equipment, training, and guided trips into Idaho's wilderness. Activities include rock climbing, kayaking, hiking, mountain biking, camping, and whitewater rafting.

Admission Information

Students who are leaders both inside the classroom and among their peers are encouraged to apply to The College of Idaho. The College strives to admit students who will benefit from the personal attention offered in a rigorous academic setting. Admission is offered on a rolling basis until the class is full. An early application option is offered to students between the summer of their junior and senior year. While the application gives students the benefit of an early application and scholarship decisions, it does not commit the student to attending the college.

Campus Visits

The College of Idaho highly encourages students and parents to visit the campus to ensure that the college is the right fit. The best time to visit campus is during the week when classes are in session. This gives visitors the opportunity to sit in on a class, meet professors and students, and observe campus life on a normal day. Calling ahead to schedule a visit is recommended, and allows the visit center to personally tailor the visit to fit the student's interests.

f you have to pay money to get money, it's probably a scam.

Finding financial aid is no simple task. Financial aid experts advise students to be prepared to put in hours of research and paperwork. Unfortunately, many students and their families are overwhelmed by the work involved and are still unaware of the free sources of financial aid information. They end up paying hundreds of dollars to companies offering to help them find money for college. These services use information about the student and family to provide information about scholarships for which the student "may" be eligible. In addition to providing scholarship source lists, some of these services claim to actually help with students' applications, or "do the work for you."

People who have paid for such services report problems, such as out-of-date scholarship contact names and addresses, or scholarships that are strictly for people of another race, gender, or age group appearing on a "personalized" list furnished by the service. Some of the listed scholarships are for specific disciplines and many students are ineligible. Many sources on the lists actually turn out to be either loan programs or contests. Some fraudulent companies require the student to apply for every scholarship or grant on the company's list and to provide proof of rejection for each one before giving any refund, conditions that are not disclosed until after the student pays the up-front fee. Because many of the sources on the lists don't provide scholarships or have expired deadlines, it may be impossible for consumers to obtain the required rejection letters.

Be wary of scholarships with an application fee, scholarship-matching services who guarantee success, advance-fee loan scams, and sales pitches disguised as financial aid "seminars." Compare the private search company's offer to the information available before paying for this information. About 95 percent of college aid comes from state or federal government agencies. If students are suspicious of a scholarship offer, they should visit their high school guidance counselor, or those out of high school should call or visit a college financial aid office.

Idaho Attorney General's Consumer Protection Unit

According to the Idaho Office of the Attorney General, "students and their parents should realize that applying for college aid is hard work and that only the student can complete applications, gather recommendations, and write the essays required. No company is going to do all that even for a large fee."

For example:

Only students and their parents have the information required to compute "official" financial need; to accurately complete government and institutional financial aid forms; to understand their own goals and preferences; and to sort through the thousands of scholarships, loans, and grants that are available each year.

Once a list of prospective sources of aid is assembled, only the student can complete the application materials. At a minimum, there will be an application form to fill out, as well as projects, a resume, a letter, or a collection of references.

The Idaho Attorney General's Consumer Protection Unit has a tip sheet that discusses services that offer financial aid searches for a fee. You can access this tip sheet by calling 1-800-432-3545, or go to www2.state.id.us/ag/. Once you access this web site, click on Consumer Protection, click Tip Sheet and Information, and then click on Searching for Scholarships.

Academic Information

BYU-Idaho offers approximately 14 Associate and 60 Baccalaureate degree programs. Bachelors degrees are divided into two categories: integrated and specialized. Specialized Bachelors degrees require students to complete 70 credit hours in their major area of study. This type of degree is the usual offering at colleges and universities. Integrated Bachelors degrees are an offering unique to BYU-Idaho. Integrated degrees require a student to complete 45 credit hours in a major. The remaining credits can be tailored to a student's specific postgraduate intentions and interests. Integrated degrees give students a broader learning experience. For a complete list of majors, please visit www.byui. edu/maiors.

Campus Life

Life is meant to be experienced, not just observed. Student involvement is the cornerstone of a BYU-Idaho education. The Activities Program gives students opportunities to participate in a variety of organizations and events outside of class. The program is completely student run and involves over 8,000 students. Elder Henry B. Eyring, former President of Ricks College, called the Activities Program, "leadership training of the broadest and most exciting kind." Whether students want to direct, coach, play, act, perform, lead, compete, serve, or just make friends, they will find an outlet in the Activities Program. To learn more, go to www. byui.edu/activities.

In addition to the Activities Program, students are involved in:

- Weekly devotionals
- · Family home evening groups
- · A variety of outdoor activities
- Student wards

Admission Requirements

BYU-Idaho exists to provide an education consistent with the religious and family values taught by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints. We admit persons without regard to gender, race, creed, religion, national origin, age, or disability who meet the requirements; who agree to abide by the Honor Code and Dress and Grooming Standards; and who are otherwise qualified based upon available space.

In selecting a class of about 4,000 new freshmen, the admissions committee considers the following: church and seminary activity (LDS), personal commitment to living the standards, academic preparation, ACT or SAT, out-of-class activities, and an essay.

Three Track System

BYU-Idaho operates year-round with three distinct 14-week semesters: Fall, Winter, and Spring. Each student is admitted to a track consisting of two semesters: Fall/Winter, Winter/Spring, or Spring/Fall.

The track assignment process is a two-stage procedure. The first step is to apply to BYU-Idaho. The Admissions Committee will review each application and, if accepted, an offer is extended. Once admitted, the second step is for the student to complete a questionnaire that gathers personal information to help determine the track assignment. Once all the information is reviewed, a track assignment is made.

Students can only enroll in classes during their assigned track and they must remain on the same track through graduation. Because of the Three Track System, BYU-Idaho is able to admit over 3,000 students each year who would otherwise be turned away due to limited space and resources.

Spring/Fall Track April-December

Fall/Winter Track September-April

Winter/Spring Track January-July

Innovative Calendar

BYU-Idaho's academic semesters run for 14 weeks instead of 16. Longer class periods and shorter semesters allow students to get the same amount done in less time. All students, regardless of track, may attend an optional Summer Session which runs from mid-July to the week after Labor Day. Learn more at www.byui.edu/Admissions/tracksystem.htm.

Program Profile

Dual Credit is a collaborative partnership between Idaho's colleges/universities with high schools to provide college courses for high school students. The high school instructors partner with college/university academic departments to deliver college-level courses. This program provides an opportunity for high school students to receive both high school and college credits for pre-approved courses. Most universities allow the high school students access to their library for research, a student ID card, and access to events on campus. Students receive a letter grade based on work completed during the duration of the class which will be reflected on a college transcript.

Students are also able to take classes on-line, via distance education, as well as on the college/university campus.

Program Benefits

- Enhances ability and skills to do college-level work, and aids students in gaining confidence for college success.
- Brings colleges/universities faculty and high school teachers together to share methods, ideas, and experiences that benefit the students.

About Dual Credit Opportunities

- College/university classes are taught in a variety of methods and offered throughout the day to serve the students. Classes are typically offered in the high schools during the regular school day, as well as on the college campus and through interactive video or on-line.
- Courses are taught by high school teachers who have been pre-qualified by the college/ university academic departments and meet adjunct-status hiring requirements.
- Courses must be listed in the college/ university catalog and apply toward a college/ university degree and may apply towards high school graduation.
- Students registering for dual credit classes generate a regular college transcript.
- Students should be 16 years old or have successfully completed at least half of their high school requirements.
- Colleges and universities monitor and support the quality of instruction.

Idaho dual credit partnership is a collaborative effort between colleges, universities, and school districts.

Important Facts

Transferability of Credits

Dual credit courses are accepted by all Idaho institutions of higher education and most institutions outside of the state. Idaho's colleges/universities are accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. Students are encouraged to consult with the institution of their choice regarding the transferability of credits earned. To request official transcript information go to the individual institution's Website.

Registration Process for Dual Credit courses

Registration takes place in the fall and spring semesters for dual credit courses. The students are enrolled in the classes using the high school's calendar. Academic Programs

New Saint Andrews is a limited-enrollment, nonresidential college located on Friendship Square in historic downtown Moscow. The College limits enrollment to no more than 200 students so that faithful faculty, instead of ever-increasing enrollment, define the character of the College. The student-faculty ratio is 11:1. The College's rigorous academic program focuses exclusively on the Trivium—rhetoric, grammar, and dialectics (or logic)—and the Quadrivium—arithmetic, mathematics, astronomy (and other natural sciences), and music (and the arts). The academic year is divided into four eight-week sessions. Each week, students meet Mondays and Tuesdays for orienting lectures, then read and evaluate a number of primary works ("Great Books"), and then gather in small (4-6 students) recitation sections with their professors for review and discussion of those readings. The College requires oral exams in every subject at the end of each eight-week term. Seniors are expected to write and publicly defend before a faculty committee a thesis of original research or a creative project. The College also offers an M.A. in Trinitarian Theology and Culture, as well as an M.St. and graduate certificate in Classical Christian Studies.

Student Profile

New Saint Andrews College has outstanding students who have been readily accepted into graduate and professional programs across the country. They rank among the top three percent nationally on the ACT and SAT exams and have the highest combined averages on those tests among all 13 Idaho public and private post-secondary institutions. NSA graduates typically score in the 80-90 percentiles on graduate exams (GRE, GMAT, LSAT, etc.). Students come from more than 30 states and five foreign countries to study at New Saint Andrews.

Admissions Requirements

New Saint Andrews only accepts 50 to 60 new students each year. The Admissions Committee gives careful attention to an applicant's record in English, languages, history, math, and social studies in order to assess the student's ability to meet the College's significant reading and writing requirements. Previous Latin and classical studies are not required, but they may prove helpful in demonstrating a student's ability and commitment to pursuing the College's classical curriculum. Go online to see other application requirements.

Financial Aid

New Saint Andrews does not participate, on principle, with any government-sponsored financial aid programs. Instead, the College is dedicated to building a base of privately funded scholarships for needy and deserving students. New Saint Andrews does not accept federal aid.

College Visits

The College invites prospective students and their families to visit New Saint Andrews during our fall, winter, or spring Prospective Student Weekend events, which run all day Friday through all day Monday. Visitors are welcome anytime, but these special weekend events provide prospective students and their parents with an up-close look at the College and what daily life is like in our Christian academic community. The Prospective Student Weekends include opportunities to sit in on classes, meet the faculty and students, tour our facilities and the community, attend the local churches, get answers to your questions about attending New Saint Andrews, consider your various housing options, and enjoy some events arranged to introduce you to student life here. Visitors to campus are always welcome, but for the dates and times of upcoming Prospective Students Weekends, call the Office of New Student Services at (208) 882-1566.

Student Activities

New Saint Andrews does not have an intercollegiate athletic program, nor does it have a recreation center. Club sports and community activities include rugby, basketball, volleyball, theater, dancing, nursing home visitations, and choir groups.

Accreditation

New Saint Andrews College is an accredited member of the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (www.tracs. org), which is recognized by the United States Department of Education (USDE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), and the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE).

Please note that courses or degrees from this institution may not currently transfer to Idaho Public Institutions.

Advanced Opportunities Learning Programs

Students at Idaho colleges and universities may earn college credit for education completed while enrolled in the secondary system.

The College Board Advanced Placement (AP) Examinations: The College Board provides AP exams in a variety of subject areas. The tests are taken while you are still in high school. (See page 19)

The Educational Testing Services College Level Equivalency Program (CLEP) Tests: Some Idaho colleges and universities provide credit for CLEP General or CLEP Subject examinations, or both. CLEP General Examinations cover broad areas of study such as mathematics, history, etc. For more information on AP, CLEP and dual credit programs, contact your high school counselor. (See page 19 for more information.)

Tech Prep: The Tech Prep program allows students to receive technical college credit for a high school professional-technical course (or combination of courses) that has been evaluated and determined to be equivalent to a technical college course. For more information, contact your high school counselor.

The institution you plan to attend may also offer credit based on other criteria. For more information, contact the college or university.

Interstate Programs for Idaho Students

In some specialized fields of study, Idaho has too few students to warrant the establishment of expensive programs. In order to provide Idahoans a full range establishment of expensive programs in cooperation with other states.

Medicine

University of Washington School of Medicine:

The Washington-Wyoming-Alaska-Montana-Idaho (WWAMI) Regional Medical Education Program allows a limited number of Idaho students the opportunity to study medicine using the combined resources of the University of Idaho and the University of Washington School of Medicine in Seattle. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of fees and tuition for each Idaho student admitted to the program. For more information, contact Dr. Andrews Turner, Director, WWAMI Medical Program, University of Idaho, Student Health Building, Moscow, ID 83844, (208) 885-6696 or Marlane Martonick, WWAMI Staff by email at: marlanem@uidaho.edu

Idaho Rural Physician Incentive Program

The 2003 Idaho Legislature established the Idaho Rural Physician Incentive Program to encourage primary care physicians to practice in medically underserved areas of the state. Beginning with the Fall 2003 semester, all first-year medical education students will be assessed a fee equal to four percent of the annual average medical support fee paid by the state. The fee collected by the State Board of Education will be deposited into the Rural Physician Incentive Fund to repay the educational debts of rural physicians who practice primary care medicine in medically underserved areas of the state that demonstrate a need for assistance in physician recruitment.

Veterinary Medicine

The Washington-Idaho Regional Veterinary Medical Education Program (formerly WOI) allows a limited number of Idaho students the opportunity to study for a career in veterinary medicine using the combined resources of the University of Idaho College of Agricultural and Life Sciences Animal and Veterinary Science Department/Caine Veterinary Teaching Center-Caldwell, ID, and Washington State University College of Veterinary Medicine-Pullman, WA. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of fees and tuition for each Idaho resident student admitted to this program. For more information, contact: Dr. Marie Bulgin, Caine Veterinary Teaching Center, 1020 E. Homedale Road, Caldwell, ID 83607, (208) 454-8657; Dr. Carl Hunt, Head/Animal & Veterinary Science Department, University of Idaho, Moscow ID 83844-2330, (208) 885-6345; or visit the following websites www.avs.uidaho.edu, www.cainecenter.uidaho.edu, or www.vetmed.wsu.edu.

Dentistry

The Idaho Dental Education Program provides financial support for a limited number of Idaho students admitted to the School of Dentistry at Creighton University in Omaha, NE. For current information on the program, contact Dr. Jeff Ybarguen, Chair, Idaho Dental Education Program, Idaho State University, P.O. The Internet is a great resource for scholarship information. Here are some world wide web addresses that you might find helpful:

- Attorney General Lawrence Wasden warns "Searching for scholarships can be a long and confusing job for students who are not aware of their resources. For this reason students often turn to scholarship search services for assistance. However, oftentimes the same information students purchase from scholarship search services is available from local sources 'free." College is an investment in your future, so it is important to plan ahead. Fortunately, there are many forms of financial aid to help you and your family manage the costs. While your high school guidance counselor can provide you with specific information, here are some general sources of what's available. Also, see page 11 for helpful tips on avoiding scholarship scams.

Types of Finanical Aid

Scholarships

Awarded for a variety of reasons, such as financial need, good grades, special talents, or career plans. For details, contact the scholarship office of your chosen school.

State or Federal money based on financial need that you don't need to repay.

College Work-Study

Money you can earn for school by working part-time for the college or university that you attend.

Look

Academic institutions are not the only agencies offering scholarships, so check with local organizations, such as: your parent's place of employment; your church; civic or community groups such as American Legion, YMCA, 4-H, Elks, Masons, Kiwanis, Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce, and Rotary; government agencies; and foundations. Libraries and the Internet are good resources to research financial aid opportunities.

Talk
